Hello Lovely!

I am so excited for you to start using this planner. When creating this planner, you were in the back of my mind. You helped me focus on what was necessary in goal setting and journaling. It is a simple, no-fuss planner template allowing you to breakdown your long term goals into weekly action plans, easily becoming part of your daily routine. This method allows you to achieve your goals quickly and effectively.

INSIDE THE WEEKLY PLANNER YOU WILL FIND...

Weekly Planner - create goals for each week, update each day on your progress and keep as mini daily journal

Personal Planner - What is your BHG (Big Hairy Goal) for the week? This secondary outline helps you track your progress and take notes to help you with future weeks Goal setting and journaling has been life changing for me. You will find your #bestself in the process. Feel free to use on your computer or print each week!

xoxo,

Jess
